90 YEARS OF SERVICE

Fire Police City County Federal Credit Union was founded as the Fort Wayne Firemen's Credit Union in 1933 at what is now the Fort Wayne Firefighters Museum. Credit union pioneer C.E. Oldham introduced the concept as a means to provide competitive financial services to the firefighters of Fort Wayne, eventually culminating in the introduction of loans, share drafts and federal insurance for members' funds.

Over the course of its 90-year history, FPCCFCU has grown to encompass more than 330 Select Employee Groups. However, we have always remained dedicated to our founding principle - being a trusted source for our members to save and borrow money. For our more than 11,000 members today, we strive to continue offering low rates and competitive savings options.

PROTECT YOURSELF BEFORE YOU WRECK YOURSELF

In order to protect yourself from fraud, it's important to understand the ways imposters can attempt to scam you out of your money and your personal information. The Federal Trade Commission surveyed more than 2.4 million consumers in 2022 to find the five most frequently reported scams. Below you will find these scams in order of prevalence, which contributed to $8.8 billion in losses to consumers last year.

- Imposters
- Online Shopping
- Prizes, Sweepstakes and Lotteries
- Investments
- Business and Job Opportunities

Understanding how these fraudulent activities may sneak into your daily life is crucial to avoiding attacks in the first place. Through financial literacy, we seek to empower our members to make informed financial decisions and spot fraud before they become victims. That's why we've partnered with Zogo, the next-gen financial education solution to make financial education available to all. If you don't have it downloaded already, go to the app and check out over 900 financial modules to start learning today! Don't forget to use promo code FPCCFCU.
